

Influence Publishing – The House of Story Medicine

Summary of Services

I am the eye of soul, seeing the unseen. The bridge between the seen and the unseen. I perceive beneath the surface, tuning into others' unspoken truths. My gift is sacred listening — hearing the soul beneath the story, midwifing others into remembrance.

Though grounded, I carry the essence of one who came to illuminate forgotten truths. As a sacred listener and soul purpose midwife, I help others reawaken their truth and beauty. My grounded nature anchors higher frequencies into form. I am the seer between worlds. I see what others miss. I carry ancient sight. I see into the soul. I've been mentoring story tellers for 17 years and 300 went on to publish their stories. If you are ready to step into your Soul Purpose join us at whichever level calls to you.
